Continuous training of migration officers

A group of officers of the General Inspectorate for Migration have been trained in the course "Migration and Asylum", organized by the "Stefan cel Mare" Academy of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

The teaching purposes included legislative provisions on the documentation of foreigners, strategies for migration management, combating illegal migration and illegal stay, regulation of the right of residence and sustainable solutions to the current challenges in these areas.

The General Inspectorate for Migration prioritizes the continuous improvement of services provided to foreigners, based on respect for fundamental human rights and freedoms, through the development of migration officers, increased transparency and reduction of waiting times.
